This to certify that

KAN Sp. z o.o.

ul. Zdrojowa 51, 16-001 Białystok - Kleosin, Poland is insured under the following conditions:

General Third Party Liability (Premises, Operations including Product Liability)

Sum insured: EUR 6.359.974,56 each and every occurrence

Period of insurance: 01.03.2023 – 29.02.2024

Basic scope of cover is extended:

Clause 001. Damage Occurring in the Territory of the US or Canada

Subject to the remaining provisions of the insurance contract, not changed by this clause, specified in the application and in the general terms and conditions of the insurance, the parties agreed that under the sub-limit for clause 001A, it is additionally determined: 1) Under this clause, insurance cover is provided only if the following conditions are met:

- a) protection is provided only for recourse claims of the Insured's counterparty reported in respect of personal injury or property damage arising in the USA or Canada, Australia and New Zealand;
- b) the damage arises due to defective products made by the Insured, excluding defects in the marking of the product, instructions for use of the product or the manner of presenting the product on the American or Canadian market;
- c) the product manufactured by the insured will not comply with the specification provided by its contractor (the scope of insurance does not cover liability for damages resulting from defects in specifications provided by the insured contractor).

2) Deductible USD 1,000.00 in each loss (including recourse as well as personal injury claims), unless other provisions of the insurance contract provide for a higher deductible amount.
